A Student's Guide to Academic and Professional Writing in Education Katie O. Arosteguy 2019 This concise handbook helps educators write for the rhetorical situations they will face as students of education, and as preservice and practicing teachers. It provides clear and helpful advice for responding to the varying contexts, audiences, and purposes that arise in four written categories in education: classroom, research, credential, and stakeholder writing. The book moves from academic to professional writing and chapters include a discussion of relevant genres, mentor texts with salient features identified, visual aids, and exercises that ask students to apply their understanding of the concepts. Readers learn about the scholarly and qualitative research processes prevalent in the field of education and are encouraged to use writing to facilitate change that improves teaching and learning conditions. “At the heart of this book is a commitment to the value of teachers’ voices.” —From the Foreword by Mya Poe, director, Writing Program, Northeastern University “This book is one tool to help prospective educators embrace all the writing that is to come.” —Anne Elrod Whitney, Penn State College of Education “The authors know the questions students might ask and the places where they might misstep.

The book is supportive, analytical, logically sequenced, clear, and student friendly.” —Tim Dewar, UC Santa Barbara

Social Justice and Transformative Learning

Saundra M. Tomlinson-Clarke 2016-03-10 The similarities between the United States and South Africa with respect to race, power, oppression and economic inequities are striking, and a better understanding of these parallels can provide educational gains for students and educators in both countries. Through shared experiences and perspectives, this volume presents scholarly work from U.S. and South African scholars that advance educational practice in support of social justice and transformative learning. It provides a comprehensive framework for developing transformational learning experiences that facilitates leadership for social justice, and a deeper understanding of the factors influencing personal, national and global identity.

English Language Arts, Grade 11 Module 3
Public Consulting Group (PCG) 2015-08-24 Paths to College and Career is a new, comprehensive English Language Arts curriculum for grades 6 to 12 built from the ground up over a three-year period to address the Common Core State Standards (CCSS) for English Language Arts and Literacy. It reflects a deep understanding of the standards and assessments, and is written with a focus on the shifts in instructional practice and student experiences the standards require. It includes daily lesson plans, guiding questions, recommended texts, scaffolding strategies, and other classroom resources. Paths to College and Career provides teachers, schools, and districts with a concrete and practical ELA instructional program that engages students with compelling and complex texts. At each grade level, Paths to College and Career delivers a yearlong curriculum that develops all students' ability to * read closely and engage in text-based discussions, * build evidence-based claims and arguments, * conduct research and write from sources, and * expand their academic vocabulary. Paths to College and Career's instructional resources address the needs of all learners, including students with disabilities, English language learners, and gifted and talented. The curriculum is flexible, user friendly, engaging, and purposefully built to prepare students for career, college, and life. In Module 3 of Grade 11, students engage in an inquiry-based, iterative process for research. Building on work with evidence-based analysis in Modules 1 and 2 of Grade 11, students explore topics that have multiple positions and perspectives by gathering and analyzing research based on vetted sources to establish a position of their own. Students first generate a written evidence-based perspective, which will serve as the early foundation of what will ultimately become a written research-based argument paper. The research-based argument paper synthesizes and articulates several claims using valid reasoning and relevant and sufficient evidence to support the claims. Students read and analyze sources to surface potential problem-based questions for research, and develop and strengthen their writing by revising and editing.

Ver weg van het stadsgewoel Thomas Hardy 2016-02-02 De titel is ironisch: alle hoofdpersonages zijn mensen vol gevoel die het plattelandsleven niet als rustig of kalm ervaren. De roman draait om een onafhankelijke vrouw, Batsheba Everdene, die zo moedig is conventies te negeren en zelfstandig een boerderij te beheren. Ze heeft drie aanbidders wier levens onvermijdelijk met elkaar verstrengeld raken. Ver weg van het stadsgewoel is een poëtische roman. Hardy begon als dichter en schreef daarna pas romans. Later keerde hij terug naar de poëzie. Juist in zijn romanfase schreef hij prachtige regels; gedeelten uit dit boek zijn ooit geschreven als blanke verzen. Het resultaat is verbluffend. Dit meeslepende boek is nooit eerder in het Nederlands vertaald. Marcel Otten - vooral bekend om zijn prachtige vertalingen uit het IJsslands - slaat met de vertaling van dit werk nieuwe wegen in.
